

MORGAN, BROWN and & JOY, LLP

Cordially invite you to a free seminar on

Internal Investigations: Practical, Legal and Ethical Issues

The complex and high-stakes issues that arise from employee misconduct is a minefield for employers. Investigating employee misconduct is a difficult task for those responsible for doing so, including company executives, in-house counsel, and human resources professionals. Hosted by experts in employment law and corporate investigations, this seminar will examine strategies for conducting effective investigations that find the truth while minimizing legal liabilities.

Highlights

Investigating Complaints of Employee Misconduct

- Legal Obligations of the Employer
- Necessary Company Policies
- When and What You Need to Investigate
- How to Conduct Prompt and Effective Investigations
- Remedial Measures
- Avoiding Retaliation (the fastest growing employment law claim)
- Employee Privacy Issues and Workplace Technology
- Use of Outside Vendors

Investigating Employee Fraud, Waste and Abuse

- Fraud, Waste & Abuse – the Risks & Statistics
- Employee Integrity Strategies
- Practical and Appropriate Investigative Actions

Where: Morgan, Brown & Joy, 200 State Street, 11th Floor, Boston, MA 02109

When: Friday, December 8, 2006, from 8:00 a.m.—10:00 a.m.

Register on line at: www.morganbrown.com or by phone at 617-788-5037