

FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE ACT AND ITS PITFALLS— AN INTRODUCTORY PRIMER

Presented by DRI's Employment Law Committee

Health-related absences challenge an employer's ability to maximize productivity, care for employees and comply with the law. This interactive teleconference on the Family and Medical Leave Act will provide a nuts-and-bolts approach to assist employers in meeting those goals. This program will help you to recognize potential employment law issues and teach you practical solutions.

Who Should Attend

- Employment law practitioners
- In-house counsel
- Human Resources professionals

What You Will Learn

- When the FMLA applies
- Employee rights and employer responsibilities
- Intermittent and reduced leave
- Employment continuation obligations
- Interplay with state and federal laws

The State Bar of California has approved this teleconference for CLE credit. Please visit www.dri.org for accreditation in your state and links to all state bar associations.

Register Now!

One price per firm/company—invite as many people as you want!

Teleconference Registration Fees*

$150 Member $180 Non-Member

Take advantage of these attractive discounts!

1–5 offices – regular price per site/office

6–10 offices – $20 off registration fee per site/office

11+ offices – $25 off registration fee per site/office

Phone your registration and credit card information to KRM at 800.775.7654 or

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER ONLINE.

*International Participants: Additional phone charges may apply.

Please call KRM Information Services at 715.833.5426 for exact costs.

Tuesday, November 28, 2006

3:00 p.m. – 4:30 p.m. Eastern

2:00 p.m. – 3:30 p.m. Central

1:00 p.m. – 2:30 p.m. Mountain

12:00 p.m. – 1:30 p.m. Pacific

Jaclyn L. Kugell is a partner in the Boston law firm of Morgan Brown & Joy LLP, a thirty lawyer firm that represents employers in labor and employment law matters. Ms. Kugell represents employers in state and federal courts and administrative agencies around the country, including in several FMLA matters. Ms. Kugell regularly advises employers on leave administration and the interplay between the FMLA and other state and federal laws. She has been a DRI member for the past two years where she is active in the Employment Law Committee.

David S. Yandle is a principal in the Charleston, South Carolina firm of Buist Moore Smythe McGee, PA. His primary focus is the representation of employers and management through litigation and counseling in all aspects of employment law, including discrimination, wrongful termination, wage and hour matters, and employment agreements. Mr. Yandle has been a DRI member since 1995. He is a member of the Employment Law and Workers' Compensation Committees.

Expertise
SUPPORT
networking
ADVANTAGE