

Andrea E. Zoia Serves on Advisory Committee for BBA's Annual Employment Law Conference

Morgan, Brown & Joy attorney Andrea Evans Zoia is a member of the advisory committee for the Boston Bar Association's (BBA) annual Employment Law Conference to be held virtually on November 18, 2021. In this role, Andrea and fellow committee members developed panels and identified expert panelists. Andrea will also be moderating a conference panel on the interplay of employee benefits and leave programs during COVID-19. This year, the conference will cover pressing issues facing both outside and in-house employment lawyers– including COVID vaccine mandates and accommodations, DEI issues and creating an inclusive workplace, various leave policies available to employees, strategies for managing a remote workforce, and more. To register, visit <https://bostonbar.org/membership/events/event-details?ID=38294>