

Andrea E. Zoia to Co-chair MCLE Program, “Intersection of Employment Laws for a Multistate Remote Workforce”

Morgan, Brown & Joy partner Andrea E. Zoia will co-chair the Massachusetts Continuing Legal Education (MCLE) program, “Intersection of Employment Laws for a Multistate Remote Workforce,” on February 10. Andrea and fellow faculty will discuss how the intersection of employment laws across states shapes internal policies for a remote workforce, as well as best practices to proactively manage legal issues and risks. For more information and to register, visit here.