

Jaclyn L. Kugell Serves on NUSL's Annual Labor and Employment Program Planning Committee

Morgan, Brown & Joy partner Jaclyn L. Kugell is serving on the planning committee for Northeastern University School of Law's (NUSL) upcoming Labor and Employment Program scheduled for December 1, 2022. The annual program provides practitioners with an opportunity to hear from alumni and recognized experts in labor and employment law on topics of critical importance to attorneys, judges, neutrals, government practitioners, union representatives, in-house counsel and human resources professionals. To learn more, visit here.