

Jeffrey S. Siegel to Speak at the Massachusetts Continuing Legal Education Seminar

Morgan, Brown & Joy Attorney Jeffrey S. Siegel will speak at the Massachusetts Continuing Legal Education (MCLE) Seminar, “Aging Eggshell Employees,” April 3, 2019 in Boston, MA. The seminar will discuss the evolving tapestry of baby boomer workers’ compensation and employment discrimination claims.

Siegel is a partner at Morgan, Brown & Joy representing employers in a variety of labor and employment matters. His practice includes labor and employment litigation, including claims of discrimination, improper payment of wages, state common law, breach of contract, wrongful termination and defamation claims. He is a member of the Massachusetts and New Hampshire Bar Associations and has been recognized as a labor and employment law “Rising Star” by Law and Politics Magazine and published in Boston Magazine’s Super Lawyers edition.

MCLE is the Massachusetts legal community’s premier provider of hands-on educational programs and reference materials. Its particular focus is applied law: practical, highly concrete training for attorneys in the essential elements of professional practice. MCLE presents more than 250 programs annually, in a variety of in-person and online formats and publishes more than 160 practice manuals.

About Morgan, Brown & Joy, LLP

Morgan, Brown & Joy is among the largest management-side employment law firms in New England, representing a wide range of Fortune 100 corporations and small businesses across all sectors of the economy. The firm’s attorneys are known for anticipating and finding solutions to the ever-expanding range of employment-related legal issues in order to avoid the time and cost of litigation. When litigation becomes necessary, the firm aggressively defends its clients and has a proven record of success.