

Jeffrey T. Collins to Serve as Faculty for NITA Program “Building Trial Skills: Boston”

Morgan, Brown & Joy counsel Jeffrey T. Collins will serve as a faculty member for the National Institute for Trial Advocacy (NITA) program, “Building Trial Skills: Boston” from December 5 – 9, 2022. Along with fellow faculty members, Jeffrey will provide expert insights on trial advocacy skills, as well as personalized coaching and constructive feedback to attendees during the program’s educational “role-play” trials. To learn more and register, visit here.