

Nathan L. Kaitz to Speak at American Arbitration Association's Witness Preparation Education Program

Morgan, Brown & Joy attorney Nathan L. Kaitz will speak at the American Arbitration Association's (AAA) Witness Preparation Education Services program, June 7, 2019 in Boston, MA. The seminar will cover the "dos and don'ts" of witness preparation and examination to present to an arbitrator. Specific topics include:

- Selecting and preparing witnesses
- Effects of stress on witnesses
- Guidelines for testifying as a witness
- Direct and cross- examination
- Navigating open and closed questions

Kaitz's practice involves employment litigation and labor law in the private and public sector, representing employers before the National Labor Relations Board and the Massachusetts Labor Relations Commission. He negotiates collective bargaining agreements and handles arbitration and employment litigation cases. Kaitz also provides day-to-day employment law counseling and advice to executives, human resource professionals and in-house counsel. He is a member of the Labor and Employment Law sections of the Boston, Massachusetts and American Bar Associations and has lectured on labor and employment law issues for those bar associations, as well as other organizations.

AAA is the world's leading source of alternative dispute resolution education and provides neutrals, advocates, counsel and other professionals with a wide spectrum of education and training events and resources.

About Morgan, Brown & Joy, LLP

Morgan, Brown & Joy is among the largest management-side employment law firms in New England, representing a wide range of Fortune 100 corporations, educational and health care institutions and small businesses across all sectors of the economy. The firm's attorneys are known for anticipating and finding solutions to the ever-expanding range of employment-related legal issues in order to avoid the time and cost of litigation. When litigation becomes necessary, the firm aggressively defends its clients and has a proven record of success.