

Tracy Thomas Boland to Speak at Hospitality Financial & Technology Professionals Club Summit

Morgan, Brown & Joy Attorney Tracy Boland will speak at the Hospitality Financial & Technology Professionals (HFTP) Club Summit, March 11, 2019 in Nashville, TN. Her presentation will address sexual harassment in the workplace.

Boland is a partner at Morgan, Brown & Joy specializing in a full range of employment law issues, including hiring and firing, pay equity, equal employment opportunities, performance management, investigations, wage and hour issues, leaves of absence and the accommodations process, and reductions in force. She is an experienced trainer, having been certified through the MCAD's Certified Harassment and Discrimination Train-the-Trainer Courses. Additionally, Boland is a frequent lecturer on traditional, novel and emerging employment law issues. She is a member of the Massachusetts, Boston and Women's Bar Associations, the Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce, and The Boston Club.

Established in 1952, HFTP is an international, nonprofit association that understands the finance and technology industry's pressing issues and assists its stakeholders in finding solutions to their challenges. It does this via its expert networks, research, certification programs, information resources and conferences/events such as HITEC.

About Morgan, Brown & Joy, LLP

Morgan, Brown & Joy is among the largest management-side employment law firms in New England, representing a wide range of Fortune 100 corporations and small businesses across all sectors of the economy. The firm's attorneys are known for anticipating and finding solutions to the ever-expanding range of employment-related legal issues in order to avoid the time and cost of litigation. When litigation becomes necessary, the firm aggressively defends its clients and has a proven record of success.