

CLIENT ALERT: Effective January 1, 2012, New Hampshire WARN Act Applies to Employers of 100 or More Employees

Employers doing business in New Hampshire must be aware of a state law requiring employers to provide written notice to employees in advance of a mass layoff or plant closing. Modeled after Federal law, the New Hampshire Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act ("NH WARN Act") took effect on January 1, 2010. See RSA 275-F:1, et seq. As originally enacted, the NH WARN Act applied to employers who employed 75 or more employees. In June 2011, the NH legislature amended the NH WARN Act. See S.B. 121. Effective January 1, 2012, the NH WARN Act will apply to employers who employ 100 or more employees.

For a summary of the NH WARN Act, please see MBJ's Client Alert dated December 14, 2009, entitled, The New Hampshire WARN Act to Take Effect on January 1, 2010.

Please contact your MBJ attorney with any questions you have concerning an employer's obligations to provide notice under applicable law in advance of a mass layoff or plant closing.
